MONDAY  TUESDAY  WEDNESDAY    Curriculum Standard ID#:	Y THURSDAY	FRIDAY
Learning Objectives:  (What you want the student to learn by the end of the lesson)    Instructional Strategies  (What strategies you utilize to achieve the Learning Objectives)    Bellwork  (What students do upon entering the classroom)    Assessment  (How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)
(What you want the student to learn by the end of the lesson)  Instructional Strategies    Instructional Strategies  (What strategies you utilize to achieve the Learning Objectives)    Bellwork  (What students do upon entering the classroom)    Assessment (How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)  Image: Class of the classroom is the learning objective is of the classroom is the classroom is the classroom is the learning objective is of the classroom is the classr to learn by the end of the lesson)  Instructional Strategies    Instructional Strategies  (What strategies you utilize to achieve the Learning Objectives)    Bellwork  (What students do upon entering the classroom)    Assessment (How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)  Image: Comparison of the classroom of the cla (What strategies you utilize to achieve the Learning Objectives)  Image: Comparison of the strategies is a strategies of the strategies of to achieve the Learning
Objectives)  Image: Comparison of the second sec
Bellwork  (What students do upon entering the classroom)  Image: Constraint of the classroom    Assessment  (How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)  Image: Constraint of the classroom
(What students do upon entering the classroom)  Image: Classroom of the classroo entering the classroom)  Assessment    (How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)  Image: Comparison of the learning objective
(How you use formative tools to know if students met the learning objectives)
Evaluation
(How you use summative tools to test for reaching the learning objectives)
Guided Practice
(What students do with your assistance to enhance the learning objectives)
Independent Practice    (What students do    independently to reinforce    the learning objectives)		